

Quick-Start Guide: The Many Lives of Prosím

Learn to Use Czech's Most Versatile Word Without Losing Your Cool

7 Must-Know Uses of Prosím

1. "Please" – Basic and Polite

Můžu si dát dort, prosím?

Can I have some cake, please?

2. "You're Welcome" – The Effortlessly Cool Reply

Díky za dárek! – Prosím!

3. "Here You Go" – Classic Czech Service Move

Barista moment: Hands you a coffee, says prosím, disappears. You feel seen.

4. "Excuse Me?" – When You Didn't Hear (or Didn't Want To)

Blah blah blah...? – Prosím?!

Raised eyebrow optional. Or not.

5. "Go Ahead" – Verbal Green Light

Prosím, jen do toho.

Said with a side-step and a smile.

6. "Excuse Me, What?" – The Passive-Aggressive Edition

Chci mluvit s manažerem! – Co prosím?!

Proceed with snark. Co isn't optional!

7. "Hello?" – Czech Phone Etiquette 101

📞 Prosím?

Mysterious. Powerful. Peak Czech energy.

3 Pro Tips for Mastering Prosím

- ✓ Tone Matters. Same word, very different vibes.
- ✓ Facial Expressions Help. A blank stare or eyebrow raise = extra Czech points.
- ✓ Use It Often. No one will think you're weird. Promise.

Mini Practice Challenge: 5 Days to Prosím Perfection

Day 1:	Use prosím when ordering something (bonus: practice your polite stare). 🙄
Day 2:	Watch a Czech movie and count how many times prosím appears.
Day 3:	Ask someone "Prosím?" when you don't understand something. No jokes here 😞
Day 4:	Answer a phone call with prosím . Mysterious aura: unlocked. 😎
Day 5:	Try all 7 uses in one day. You are now a prosím master.

Want to Practice in Real Life?

Let's make your Czech natural, native-sounding, and packed with prosím-powered charm.

👉 LESSONS

Let's turn you into a walking, sighing, prosím-using local.

Pa pa!

